TUESDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 27.

A QUEER REMEDY FOR INTERFERENCE.—An investigation recently had before Alderman Murphy, of Philadelphia, it was testified that John Waters, a resident of Chestnut Hill, had been in the habit of confining his wife in what was designated as a "sweat box," which was said to have been formed of boards fastened to joists in the cellar of the house, being in size two feet six by two feet four, and open at the top. A complaint had been made against John Waters by a sister of the wife, who had gone to the house to see her sister, but was unable to find her, and was ordered away by the husband. A prosecution for alleged breach of the peace and trespass had also been preferred against the sister before Alderman Waterhouse. The confinement of the wife in the "sweat box" was not denied, and it was sought to be justified on the ground of the wife's intemperate habits. The husband was held to bail in $1,000 for his appearance at Court. Alderman Murphy expressing the opinion that John Waters had no right to act as the part of a jailer, even though what had been said of the wife was true.

A MAMMOTH MARKET-HOUSE.—In New York, on the 21st instant, Mayor Hall laid the corner-stone of the new Manhattan market-house building, at the foot of Third-fourth street, North River. This is a private enterprise, carried on by a stock company, of which Paul J. Armour is President. The building will be composed mainly of glass and iron, 800 feet long and 200 feet wide, and in form like the new Grand Central Depot. It is said that these dimensions constitute it the largest market-house building in the world. The business of the market will be conducted on the mutual principle, the holders of the stands being entitled to a share in the profits of the company. Completed, the building will cost $1,500,000.

WANTED, a general servant, in a small family where a man is kept. The housework and cooking all done by the members of the family. The gentleman of the house rises early, but prepares breakfast himself. All the washing is put out, and the kitchen provided with every comfort and luxury. Cold meat and fresh vegetables avoided. Wages no objection to a competent party. References and photographs exchanged.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

This is to notify my friends and the public generally that I am now prepared to furnish them with STOVES OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS, having made arrangements with the manufacturers which will enable me to sell at rates as low as the same articles can be obtained in the Northern cities. My stock is large, my experience of 30 years in the business, with my personal attention, I think entitles me to claim of the public a liberal patronage. My aim and object is, as it has always been, to deal faithfully with all, and give full value for their money. I would request of all in want of a COOKING STOVE to call and examine my cooking stoves and prices before purchasing elsewhere. I also call attention to BIBB'S HEATER. For heating 3 rooms, the best Fireplace Heater, I think, that is made. Warranted in every case to act well. My stock of stoves and tinware is too varied to mention, but I would invite all in want to call and examine for themselves.
